

Healthcare Scholarship

Scholarship Program

Newly established scholarship for students that may not wish to pursue a 4-year university curriculum but may be interested in pursuing an associate's degree or certification in Lab Sciences (MLT), Nursing (ADN, BSN), Imaging (RT), Surgical Technologist (CST) or Respiratory Therapist (RRT). A full scholarship will be offered including, but not limited to tuition, books, and school related fees.

Eligibility:

- Applicants must be US citizens or permanent residents.
- Applicants must agree, as a condition of any financial assistance offered, to remain in their selected course of study.
- Enrolled full-time (defined as no less than 12 hours per semester or as determined by the school) in the following: must plan to pursue ADN, RT, RRT, CST, or MLT.
- Applicants must agree, as a condition of any financial assistance offered, to enter into a work agreement at Baylor Scott & White Medical Center Frisco after completing their selected course of study.
- Applicants must meet PRN employment eligibility requirements.

Application:

Apply for scholarship at www.BaylorFrisco.com. The application will be live on April 17, 2023.

Timeline:

- April 17–Application available at www.BaylorFrisco.com.
- June 16–Deadline for applications, along with required documentation.
- June 19 - 29–Review applications received.
- June 30–Candidate selection(s).
- July 5 - On-boarding process for employment at Baylor Frisco begins.

Selection Criteria/Weighting:

50% Track/Curriculum Selection in 'Hard-to-Fill' positions

35% Financial need

15% Academic Track Record/Circumstantial

